Norfolk, Va., June 11 .- Norfolk and ; Richmond divided a doubleheader here to-day, the locals winning the first game by a score of 9 to 5, and the visitors the second contest by a score

Weeder, who had to be taken out in the first inning of yesterday's game, was sent back to-day in the first contest for the Tars, and he had the visitors completely at his mercy. Rogers appeared to be the only Colt who could solve his delivery, and he connected safely three times. One of his hits went for a homer.

before the first inning was over, and flarry Griffin, who succeeded him, fared little better, and before the third man was retired the locals had four runs

Griffin lasted three and a half innings, and then Laval was called in from right field and pitched the remainder of the game. He did better than either of his predecessors. Schrader landed on one of his twisters in the seventh inning and lifted it over centre field fence.

In the second contest the visitors reversed things. Shenn, who pitched for Norfolk, was wild and ineffective. He gave seven bases on balls, and when he did get one over the plate it usually fell against a bat in the hands of somewhere out in the garden for a hit, Vance, who did the twirling for the Colts, had everything his own way. He did not have to exert himself, and only in pinches did he show what he could do if called upon. Scores:

REDS TAKE SCRAPPY GAME

Cincinnati, June 11—In a game marked by near-rioting, for which Manager Tinker, of Cincinnati, and Knabe, second baseman of Philadelphia, were expelled from the field. Cincinnati took the final contest of the series here to-day, 3 to 2. The mix-up between Tinker and Knabe came in the seventh. Freviously the two had engaged in a wordy war at second base, and when the Cincinnati manager sild into the sack in the seventh both players mixed it up while lying on the ground. When they stood up they at tempted to get together, and it required the services of both umpires and a number of players to stop the fracas. Neither was injured.

Benton pitched superb ball. Mayer was hit rather freely, and retired in the second and had to retire. The score.
